THE LANDING AT PARKER RIVER.

In February, 1633–4, the Council for New England, assembled at Whitehall, England, adopted an order placing certain restrictions on the transportation of passengers and merchandise to the colony of Massachusetts Bay; and before the ship "Mary and John" and eight other vessels, then lying in the river Thames, were allowed to sail, instructions were issued expressly providing that the captains in command of these vessels "shall cause the Prayers contained in the Book of Common Prayers, established in the Church of England, to be said daily at the usual hours of Morning and Evening Prayers, and that they cause all Persons on board said ships to be present at the same."

In the ship "Mary and John" came Thomas Parker, James Noyes, John Spencer, Henry Short, Henry Lunt, John Bartlett, and many others, who ultimately settled in Newbury. Upon their arrival in New England most of these passengers went to Agawam, now Ipswich, Mass., where they remained until the spring of 1635.

Meanwhile Sir Richard Saltonstall, Henry Sewall, Richard and Stephen Dummer, with others from Wiltshire, England, had organized a company for the purpose of stock-raising at a time when the prices for cattle, horses, and sheep were at their highest. They added to their own domestic herds some imported Flemish stock, and persuaded John Spencer, Henry Short, Richard Kent, Thomas Parker, and others to join them in the enterprise, and establish a settlement on the river Quascacunquen, now Parker River.

Sept. 3, 1633, the General Court granted "John Winthrop, junior, and his assignes" permission to set up a "trucking" or trading house on the Merrimack River (see

In the ship "Mary and John" came Thomas Parker, James Noyes, John Spencer, Nicholas Noyes, Henry Lunt, John Bartlett, and many others, who ultimately settled in Newbury. Upon their arrival in New England most of them went to Agawam, now Ipswich, Mass., where they remained until the spring of 1635.

Meanwhile Sir Richard Saltonstall, Henry Sewall, Richard and Stephen Dummer, with others from Wiltshire, England, had formed a company for the purpose of stock-raising at a time when the prices for cattle, horses and sheep were at their highest. They added to their own domestic herds some imported Flemish stock, and persuaded John Spencer, Henry Short, Richard Kent, Thomas Parker, and others to join them in the enterprise, and establish a settlement on the river Quascacunquen, now Parker River.

May 6, 1635, the General Court granted John Winthrop, junior, and his associates permission to set up a "Truckinge" or trading house on the Merrimack River near > feeible, lest according to the Fable in Æsop catching att a shadow you lose the Body. Give my due remembrance to my relations. Praying God to succeed you in your concerns and to bless your succes, I take leave who am your Loving Brother.

PLAN OF LOTS LAID-OUT TO THE FIRST SETTLERS OF NEWBURY, OLDTOWN —1635.

FROM AN ORIGINAL DRAWING MADE BY DANIEL DOLE IN 1828.

On page 61 of the same volume, under date of Aug. 25, 1687, Judge Sewall acknowledges the receipt of a letter from "brother Longfellow," dated London, June 11, and adds incidentally, "His father alive and well." The patrimony, therefore, to which reference is made, was probably due from the estate of a brother who died in England about that time.

After the return of William Longfellow to Newbury he enlisted in the expedition to Quebec, under Sir William Phips, and was drowned at Cape Breton in October, 1690. Judge Sewall in his diary says: —

> 'Twas Tuesday, the 18th of November, that I heard of the death of Capt. Stephen Greenleaf, Lieut. James Smith and Ensign Wm Longfellow, Serjt Increase Pilsbury, who with Will Mitchell, Jabez Musgro and four more were drown'd at Cape Britoon on Friday night the last of October.

William Longfellow and Anne (Sewall) Longfellow had six children: —

William, born Nov. 25, 1679.
Stephen, born Jan. 10, 1681.
Anne, born Oct. 3, 1683.
Stephen, born Sept. 22, 1685.
Elizabeth, born July 3, 1688.
Nathan, born Feb. 5, 1690.

April 13, 1692, Henry Sewall, in consideration of the marriage shortly to be consummated between Henry Short and Anne (Sewall) Longfellow, widow, conveyed to them during their lives, and after their decease to their children, "the farm lately in the occupation of William Longfellow, called the High Field, together with the dwelling-house, outhouses, &c." (Essex Deeds, book 16, page 21).

May 11, 1692, Henry Short married Anne (Sewall) Longfellow, and lived on the farm described above. He had, by this marriage, six children. Henry Short died Oct. 23, 1706. His widow died Dec. 18, 1706.

The title to this property was, by virtue of the deed of conveyance from Henry Sewall, vested in the surviving children of Anne (Sewall) Longfellow-Short.

Stephen Longfellow (the second of that name), born Sept. 22, 1685, was a locksmith and blacksmith by trade. Jan. 3, 1710–11, he bought of his sister Elizabeth all her right and interest "in land given to said Anne by her father, Henry Sewall, in particular the farm in Newbury known as ye high field" (Essex Deeds, book 23, page 97).

Dec. 17, 1712, he bought of his brother Nathan all his right and interest in the same property (book 37, page 261).

He married, March 25, 1713, Abigail, daughter of Rev. Edward Thompson, of Marshfield, Mass. About this time he built an addition to the house, with a lean-to roof. The addition was removed early in this century, and does not appear in the half-tone print that illustrates this sketch.

Jan. 7, 1714–15, he bought of John Emery and wife Mehitable, daughter of Anne Longfellow, all her right and interest in the house and land previously described (book 42, page 66); and Jan. 6, 1725–6, he bought of his half-brother Samuel Short "all that right and interest in the high field farm at Newbury Falls given me by deed and will of my grandfather, Henry Sewall" (book 47, page 119).

In the Letter Book of Samuel Sewall (volume 2, page 172) there is an interesting letter relating to an encumbrance on this property, which reads as follows: —

> To Mr. Stephen Longfellow SEPTR 3, 1724.
> Loving Cousin, — I am griev'd to hear that you are still contending in the Law with your Brother and Sister Adams about my honoured Father's Mortgage of Half the High-Field, which must be costly, even to the Overcomer; Besides the Loss of Brotherly-kindness, which is invaluable. Therefore I earnestly advise and intreat you to leave off this Contention before it be any further medled with; and to conclude all with a just and Kind Agreement. Praying GOD to do you and yours Good, I am your loving Unkle
> SAMUEL SEWALL.

In the same volume and on the same page is the following letter, on the same subject: —

Septʳ 3, 1724.

Loving Cousins,— I am grieved to hear that you are still contending in the Law with your brother Stephen Longfellow about my honoured Father's Mortgage of Half the High-Field, which must be Costly, even to the overcomer; Besides the Loss of Brotherly-kindness, which is invaluable. I am confident that I drew the Mortgage, and that no more was intended to be Granted thereby, than Half the High-Field strictly taken, as it was then fenced in; and to take in a Surplusage of Land lying between the Northwesterly end of the High-Field and the Head-Line of my Father's Farm, running from Rattle-Snake Rock to Philp's Brook. And therefore I earnestly advise and intreat you to leave off this Contention before it be any further medled with; and to conclude all with a just and Kind Agreement. The nearness of Relation precludes me from being a Judge in this Controversy. But, if I should live, and be called to it, I must needs give this evidence in the case. Praying GOD to do Good to you both, and to the numerous Offspring He has Bless'd you with, I remain your loving Unkle

Samuel Sewall.

To Mr. Abraham Adams & Mrs. Anne Adams at Newbury (sent by Brother Moodey)

The advice offered by Judge Sewall was apparently unheeded, and the case was brought to trial in the month of May following. In his diary, under date of May 14, 1725, he says: —

> Mr. Rogers pray'd at the opening of the Court. Judgement against cous. Adams. Cousin Longfellow has his judgment confirm'd against his Broʳ and sister Adams. With leave of the Court, I declar'd how I understood the Word High Field, who made the mortgage.

Stephen Longfellow died at Newbury Falls (Byfield Parish) Nov. 17, 1764. His son Stephen, born Feb. 7, 1723, graduated at Harvard College in 1742, removed to Falmouth (now Portland), Me., in 1745, and there married, Oct. 19, 1749, Tabitha, daughter of Samuel Bragdon, of York, Me. He died at Gorham, Me., May 1, 1790.

Stephen, the eldest son of Stephen and Tabitha (Bragdon) Longfellow, was born Aug. 3, 1750. He married Patience

Young, of York, Me., Dec. 13, 1773, and died May 28, 1824, leaving several children.

The eldest son of Stephen and Patience (Young) Longfellow, Stephen Longfellow, LL.D., was born March 23, 1776, graduated at Harvard College in 1798, and married Zilpha, eldest daughter of General Peleg Wadsworth, Jan. 1, 1804.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, the poet, second son of Stephen and Zilpha Wadsworth Longfellow, was born in Portland, Me., Feb. 27, 1807. He died in Cambridge March 24, 1882.

Stephen Longfellow, son of William Longfellow and Anne (Sewall), born Sept. 22, 1685, owned and occupied the house and farm at Newbury Falls until his death, Nov. 17, 1764. In his will, dated Oct. 13, 1760, and proved Nov. 26, 1764, he gave to his wife Abigail one-half of the homestead during her life, and to his sons Edward and Samuel, after the payment of certain bequests, all the rest and residue of his estate excepting land adjoining the new plantation in Contoocook, N.H. Abigail, wife of Lieutenant Stephen Longfellow, died Sept. 10, 1778, aged eighty-five.

Dec. 11, 1788, Edward Longfellow gave to his brother Samuel Longfellow a quitclaim deed of twenty rods of land "with the house thereon" (book 152, page 95). On the land remaining in his possession Edward Longfellow built a new house that is still standing near the site of the old homestead.

Samuel Longfellow, born March 4, 1725, married Rebekah Chase about the year 1769. She died Feb. 25, 1788, in the forty-ninth year of her age. For his second wife, he married Martha Chaplin. He occupied the old homestead until his death, Aug. 4, 1800. His will, dated May 30, 1800, and proved Sept. 1, 1800, gave all the rest and residue of his estate to his son Nathan after the payment of certain small legacies.

Nathan Longfellow, born Dec. 26, 1773, married Anna Downer in the year 1799. He died Oct. 26, 1840. In his

John Terrall, died Feb. 27th, 1712.

His wife, Mrs. Sarah Terrall, died March 7th, succeeding. No children are mentioned in the will of the latter, but she was probably a second wife.

Terrall should undoubtedly be written Tyrrel. Two persons of the name appear in New London, in the year 1662, William, a tailor, and John, a seaman. The former, probably, soon left the place. John Terrall is in the rate list of 1664. Of his family, there is no account, except a single entry upon the church record: "Goodman Tyrrell's two children, William and Mary, baptized May 7th, 1671.

John Wickwire, died in March or April, 1712.

This person was an early settler in Mohegan, or the North Parish, (now Montville.) Col. John Livingston was one of the executors named in his will. Madam Winthrop, (relict of Governor Fitz-John,) at her death, left legacies to "sister Wickwire's children."

John Wickwire married Mary, daughter of George and Margery Tongue, Nov. 6th, 1676.

Thomas Short.

"Here lyeth the body of Thomas Short, who deceased Sept. 27th, 1712, aged thirty years." The small head stone in the old burial-ground, which bears this inscription, shows where the remains of the first printer in the colony of Connecticut are deposited. He had been instructed in his art by Bartholomew Green, of Boston, who recommended him to the authorities of Connecticut, for a colony printer, in which office he established himself at New London, in 1709. In 1710, he issued "The Saybrook Platform of Church Discipline," the first book printed in the colony.[1] After this he printed sermons and pamphlets, and performed what public work the governor and company required, till death put an early stop to his labors. Two children of Thomas and Elizabeth Short, are recorded at New

Thomas Munsell died in 1712.

We find this person mentioned in 1681. He was on a committee to lay out a highway in 1683. His wife was Lydia, and his children Jacob, Elisha, Mercy and Deliverance. In 1723, Jacob was of Windsor, and Elisha of Norwich.

Stephen Hurlbut, died October 7th, 1712.

The Hurlbut family, of Connecticut, commences with Thomas Hurlbut, who was one of the garrison at Saybrook Fort in 1636, and settled in Wethersfield about 1640. Stephen, who came to New London after 1690, was probably one of his descendants, and a native of Wethersfield. He married, about 1696, Hannah, daughter of Robert Douglas, and between 1697 and 1711, had seven children baptized—Stephen, Freelove, Mary, John, Sarah, Titus, Joseph. Stephen, the oldest son, died in 1725. John is the ancestor of the Ledyard family of Hurlbuts, and Joseph of that of New London. Capt. Titus Hurlbut was a man of considerable distinction in his day; he served in the French wars, and was a captain of the old fort that stood on the eastern border of the Parade, near the present ferry wharf. His descendants, in the male line, removed to the western states.

William Camp, died October 9th, 1713.

He was an inhabitant of the Jordan district. His wife was Elizabeth, daughter of Richard Smith. His two sons William and James removed to the North Parish, (now Montville.)

Hallam.

John and Nicholas Hallam were the sons of Mrs. Alice Liveen, by a former marriage, and probably born in Barbadoes—John in 1661, and Nicholas in 1664. John married Prudence, daughter of Amos Richardson, in 1682, and fixed his residence in Stonington, where he died in 1700. His possessions were large; a thousand acres of land were leased to him in perpetuity by John Richardson of Newbury in 1692 "for the consideration of five shillings and an

MOUNT PLEASANT CEMETERY

(including Oak Hill)

Mount Pleasant Cemetery including Oak Hill Cemetery, is located on Bailey Road, two miles east of the Henry-Lucas County Line Road, and west of the Providence-Neapolis-Swanton Road.

A sandy, sloping hill was chosen, probably as a family cemetery, then expanded to include the neighborhood families. It was a free cemetery and it is said that wagon loads of bodies were hauled from Providence Village during the cholera epidemic of 1854. The Mount Pleasant Church was later erected a few feet south of the graves.

When the cemetery was first established there was no road, and the funeral processions had to travel through private property to get to the grave site. In the summer there was dense, dark foliage overhead, in the spring there was mud that seemed to swallow up the horses and hearse, and in the winter there was ice and snow.

On March 23, 1855, Charles and Martha Ryan donated 96 square rods of ground for use as a public cemetery; on March 5, 1866, the Ryans sold 34 square rods to the north; and on January 8, 1879, an acre of land was leased for church purposes. At that time the cemetery began to be known as Mount Pleasant. Another addition of 1 1/2 acres to the north was purchased from the Ryans on October 2, 1880. (See Vol. C, Page 554, Church lots.)

The trustees then levied a tax of 1 mill for fencing and cleaning. Bids were let to William Ryan for $9 to grub, and mow close to the ground the old part. The new graveyard was grubbed and cleaned off by John Ryan for $99. Grading was sold to G.H. Clantz for $38. Clantz also furnished fencing for $46.

It was January 6, 1877, when Joseph Baumbarger, principle petitioner, appeared before the township trustees, W.H. Keeler, David McCullough, and T.P. Meredith, and presented a signed petition by a sufficient number of land owners for a township road along the following route: Beginning at the Northeast corner of section 28 running thence west along the line between sections 30 and 19 one mile and there terminate on the Henry Lucas County Line Road.

A privately operated cemetery, named Oak Hill, was established on September 21, 1895, to the west of Mount Pleasant Cemetery, containing 1 7/8 acres. The land was secured from Wm. and Katherine Ward. On April 14, 1914 it was incorporated into the township system to be used as a public cemetery, and legally transferred October 10, 1914, public lot no. 2036.

An additional 3.70 acres was acquired in 1925 from Mrs. Ella Ryan for $75 per acre. Another purchase consisting of 5 acres was made from Mrs. Ryan around 1940 for $300 per acre. A 3 1/4 acre parcel was purchased from Henry Wittes which remains undeveloped. The latest addition unites all parcels together with lot lines forming perfect symmetry.

Maintenance of the graves in the beginning seemed to be the responsibility of the family. The story is that families built fences around their plats to keep stray cows from wandering over the graves. A few years later, township records show that sextons were contracted to "clean, mow and grub the cemetery, to remove feril weeds and burrs, and see to burying the dead." About that time fencing was erected around the perimeter of the grounds.

Commencing in 1894, all those having lots in the cemetery, or those buying lots were required to secure a deed for fifty cents fee. Non-residents paid $6 which included the price of the deed. In 1981 lots are sold to residents of the township for $100, and non-residents $200.

Dear Helen,

This is a note from me to say a big Thank You, for all the things you sent on Zepaniah Short and Family! Wow!
You actually get to look at an actual census on Ancestry. I'm impressed. I've only seen some census records on the internet, that had been gleaned, and not an actual copy of the real Mc Coy.

Thank you also for the photos. I haven't been able to figure out who they are, just yet. Arthur, we know. I thought I knew who Nettie was too, but now I am not sure. I have her marriage recorded 3 times in my notes.
Nettie married Frank A. Hyde on 13 June 1895 in Bay Twp., Ottawa Co., Ohio. My notes say, she was born in Port Clinton. I think she may be the daughter of Peter & Mary Jane (Jackson) Hineline. They had a Jennie born about 7 Nov. 1865? I think Nettie can be a nickname for Jenette. Her father Peter, was a hotel proprieter in Port Clinton. He was a son of William and Susannah (Raub) Hineline. (Ken's fam. Line) Peter's wife, is also a sister to Ken's gt. gt. grandma Isabelle Jackson. I'll need to look at Census Records for Nettie. A couple of the Hineline men married a Nettie too. Ken's grandma was a Nettie, but too young to be this one.
All I have for Alvin Short, is his complete birth and death dates with SS.#. He was born 31 July 1911 and died on 26 Oct. 1991. SS#302-10-6183. Tim might be a grandson.
I was on the Internet the other day, and browsing at Genealogy.com to see if anyone had posted if they were searching for our Short families. There were about 4 interested in looking up the shorts.
One was Sandy (jbk1955@aol.com) In July, she was looking for info on her gt. gt. grandma Harriet (Short)Whitmore d/o Nelson & Charlotte (DeBar) Short. She says they had a farm in Fremont Twp., Mich.? In Dec., she is looking for Sam & Mary (Cross) Short and our Amasa & Elizabeth Short Families. She states, Samuel died March 12, 1847 and is buried behind the old Bapist Church on Elm St. in Cooperstown, N.Y. He has the only marker that can be read out of five. She states that Samuel had two brothers, Amasa and Zephaniah. She lists 12 names of children for Amasa, one being Zephaniah. She apparently was looking for Morey and Dixson families too, along with some of the Babcocks.

Gert Strong responded to Sandy mentioning that her husband's mother was a Mary Jane Short Strong A sister to her Harriet. Mary Jane & husband came to California in 1910. She said she has a copy of the genealogy of Samuel Short, which was produced by Joyce Wolfgram in 1985. It said that Harriet Melissa Short was born on 14 Aug. 1871 in Otterburn, Mi. and married Aaron H. Whitmore on 14 June 1894. She died 26 Mar. 1936. Gert's e-mail address is Gert@cncnet.com

Betty Short of Brackney, Pa. a descendant of Cyrus' brother Calvin Short was asking questions on Amasa in Oct. 1998. Her e-mail address is, Shortfamily@Juno.com
A Pat O'Hara Fisher also made an inquiry, but can't recall on what. She's at, budnpat@aol.com
Nov., 2001, Nancy in Mich. Posted a note. She was looking for gt. grandpa, Walter Bradford Short. Her grandpa, Earl Edward Short. Don't know if related, but think so. Her e-mail was, foxeelady25@aol.com

Helen, if you want to contact any of these gals, you can click on their e-mails or go read what they inquired about on the Message Boards at Genealogy.com. I am real interested in knowing about the gal that supposedly has a genealogy produced for Samuel Short. Maybe it is only the info from the History Book that we have for Cyrus? I saw that that reference was also mentioned on the message boards.
More later.

Helen Hunt Read

Dear Helen:

My wife, Sharon, was reading your article In-Law and Sibling Records You Should Check and Why in the March / April issue of Ancestry, when she came across some names that were very familiar. Those names were SHORT and GRUMMOND. Upon reflection, your name was also familiar. In checking our correspondence files we discovered that Betty Yaw had given us your name as a source of information on the SHORT family.

I have enclosed pedigree charts and group sheets so you can see how I fit in. Also I'd like to compare information. Do you have anything that I don't, or anything that differs from what I have? We'd sure like to find Amasa's parents. We have been to Cooperstown and Killingly, but didn't come up with anything.

Its good to find a Short cousin - I'd love to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Roger

Roger Elliott

William: "Obit"
Rev. F.M. Otto, St. Mark's Lutheran Church, officated at funeral.
He lived in Fremont, Ohio for 48 years,
Private in the 139th Division Volunteers Infantry Co H
Written up in "Sandusky County, Ohio 1882" pg.711 with other members of family
Have newspaper "obit" in family photo book
At his death in 1953, there were 11 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren

William was known as "Billy Bradshaw" as a young boy--he lived with an anunt & uncle--presumely their last name was "Bradshaw"

June 1978--after visiting with Aunt Irene Weng she told me a little more of the life the Golden had--they had little to eat just before Florence was born and Grandma went without nourishing food so that when Florence was born and when quite small she was quite nervous and had "St. Vitus's Dance"; in fact Aunt Irene said there was talk of having her committed because of her "fits". Grandpa Golden worked cooking for railraod workers before his 1890 marriage to Grandma--also did commerical fishing; managed a farm(mostly grapes) and then in 1905 to Fremont.

Sophia Catherine Carstens:
Born in Niebull, Germany (Schlewig-Holstein)--This area in Auto Club Travel book(1975-1976)says Schlewig-Holstein is a hilly region of forests and meadows. It shares the same penisula with Denmark and is the site of several seaside resorts, including Travemude on the Baltic coast and the Island of Sylt in the North Sea. Of special interest is "Holstein Switzerland", a lovely region with many lakes. Note: If Barney & I go to Europe in 1977, we hope to visit this area. EJ

Biography:

Isaiah was among the first settlers in Townsend township (Sandusky County, Ohio)--In story by ~~Vera~~ Vern Cummings, daughter of Eva Gertrude Golden Barber, it tells that when Isaiah was a young man he ran away from the Army and changed his name to Garrett--there is also the pobbiblity that he changed name back to Josiah again to marry a Lucy Hellen Grifford(this is in Huron county records,Norwalk Ohio ; also Sandusky Clounty History 1882-Reproduction 1972  Note: Daniel Golden's marriage and death of Elisha and family is also recorded in Norwalk, Ohio

Eva Gertrude was born to Isaiah (1870) the same year Seth had his first child, William (my grandfather Gy )1870.

1850 Federal Census lists Isaiah Golden as "carpenter"

SOME GOLDEN HISTORY

(as told to me by Aunt Irene Golden Weng, in June 1978 ; also in Sept. 1977)

The Golden's (George G.) were from New Jersey; will do more research later on that portion of family. The G.G.Golden family arrived in Ohio; around early 1830's first in Milan area and then settling in Townsend twp, Sandusky County. George G. and Mary Magdelene had 17 children. They were farmers and owned land (see Deed Vol. 5 NW Section 14 Sandusky County.

Isaiah was their third son, married first Lucy Grifford and later Sara Ann Short who bore him 8 children. Seth was the eldest son and stayed on the homestead to raise his family. First, he married Henritta Dugan' and later Ella DeBo. Henrietta was of pure French blood and not well liked by the Golden family. One cold winter night, Seth "kicked out" of the house, both Heneritta and their infant son, Willian Golden. She walked miles and miles to sister's home in Oak Harbor; her feet was blistered and blood poisoning set in and she died. William was about 2 or 2½ yrs. old. He lived with his aunt and uncle (who were childless) as "Billy Bradshaw" till he married Sophia Carstens when he resumed his legal name. Wm. was cooking for a railroad gang when he & Sophia met; they were rough days and little to eat. While carrying Ma, Grandma had very little nourishing food and Ma was born with nervous disorders, called "St. Vitus Dance"--at ~~ontime~~ one time there was even talk of having her "committed" because her "fits" were so bad, but Grandma said "No". Later Grandpa did commerical fishing, even managing a farm on Catawba Island (mostly in grapes) then in 1905 they moved to Fremont, Ohio where life was still hard but a little better.
They were good, kind devout Lutheran's (Irene Golden and Grandma Golden were sponsers when I joined the Grace Lutheran church and also upon baptism).

13 (Friday!) July 1984

Dear Helen,

Just a line to let you know I am back home in Mahhattan Beach. Barney & I arrived home safely with no problems the last days of June, only to return to Ohio for my father's funeral. (JULY 9) They had put him in Fremont Memorial on June 22 but we had to leave for home on the 23rd because Barney had to return to work- my brother Bill phoned then on the morning of July 7 to say that Dad had passed away in his sleep that morning. He didn't suffer or have pain and talked to the family that Friday night, it was a blessing because he was getting "weary" with life these past few years.

Now, thanks so much for the map showing Amasa Short's land area in New York; would greatly appreciate a copy of the land deed naming his children--that will be my proof of lineage for Oliver. Enclosing a few things and the gravestone photos you wanted, if I missed anything please let me know and will gladly send them on. I don't plan any research trips until after the Olympics and the Sept. vacation trip is over--then I will head for the libraries!

You sound very busy with remodeling, best of luck in Fort Wayne researching-- it was great meeting you and Linda and really enjoyed our visit and will give you a call the next time in Fremont but of course will keep in contact. If you and David get to California, please look us up, will be happy to see you.

Enclosing a check to help defray a few of the little expenses on your next research trip, it is worth every penny and more for all the research and material you have provided on the SHORT/GRUMMON family lines. Listen, I know how expensive research can be so don't even hesitate on accepting it!!

With cousinly love,

Betty

OTTAWA CO. OHIO - County Clerks Office
Divorce - Case #1092

Suit filed 28 May 1877

Aurora states she and Amasa Short were married Mar. 1877, and she was a faithful and obedient wife.

On 6 May 1877, Amasa was guilty of extreme cruelty without just cause or provocation. Amasa struck her and knocked her down 2 or 3 times with his hands. he threw her out of the house and he then went to the Fish Shanty and told the men there "come up and get some, my wife and her daughter are whores".

Sworn statements:
Amasa Short asked for more time to produce his material witness - P.H. Ackley of Sheredan, Mich.

Isaac Stevens swore that Aurora had property at pre-nuptial value of $600.

George NiNaro? attested Aurora was of good reputation and had known her for 30 yrs. He said Amasa's reputation for honesty and integrety was bad and he had known Amasa for 20 yr.

Am? Esy? - stated Amasa had about 117 acs. of land valued at $2000 and about $200 of personal goods. He said Amasa's "reputation not very good, he was violent, quarrelsome, idel and had bad moral habits". Aurora was of a good reputation.

Timothy Perry state Amasa was violent

Joseph Yeisley? said Amasa was violent and Joseph had also known Amasa's first wife and Amasa whipped her and finally drove her away.

T. Perry said he should not have signed the previous affidavit. He could only sign his name and knew not what he was signing. On new statement he said that Amasa was no worse than any of his neighbors, he was alright until he got two wives that were hard to get along with.

?? Bleher? - store merchant said Aurora spent $30 at the store shortly before leaving Amasa. Amasa had told her to spend light because he was poor and she said she'd get everything she could. On a later statement, the merchant changed his statment to say what Aurora had bought was for the good of the whole family.

Amasa Short's only statment seemed to be that he had 2 minor children to support, one being only 5 to 6 yrs. old (5 Nov. 1877)

Ottawa Co. Ohio - County Clerks Office
Lawsuit - Case #2342

Reuben Grant: against
Amasa Short
Cliarlotte Short (wife of Amasa)
Oliver A. Short
Frederick Floro
George E. St. John
Mary E. Elwell

At the Oct. term 1877, Amasa Short was to pay Aurora Short $50 alimony, to be paid by 15 Dec. 1877. Amasa did not pay. Feb. 19, 1878 a judgement against him but he had no goods or chattle. He did have real estate in Erie twp. (w part of se fractional ¼, sec. 21 T7 NR 16 - 72-6/144 acs.) (I do not understand whether they tried to sell property at this time, but fees were accrued and no settlement made).

Nov. 10, 1882 and again 25 Nov. 1882 a "levy" was made against the land.

The divorce (annulment) was made Jan. 25, 1878. Amasa was to pay $200 over a period of 18 mos. plus court costs of $45.12.

On 22 Apr. 1879, Sloan's sold to Mary E. Dunham (now Mary E. Elwell) for $250 the fractional sec. 21 T7 R 16 Erie twp. Plaintiff says money came from Amasa Short. The purpose was to cheat, hinder and delay settlement to Aurora Short.

Then on 23 Aug. 1879, Mary E. Dunham (now Elwell) with her husband James Dunham, conveyed to Oliver A. Short the same premise.

Then on 17 Mar. 1880, Oliver A. Short and Frederick Floro, Oliver disregarded this duty as a trustee of Amasa Short and Oliver A. sold this property to F. Floro.

On 23 Aug. 1879, Oliver A. Short delivered to Mary E. Dunham (now Elwell) his morgatge deed for $400 at 8% interest due in 6 years. This is the same property and it went back to Amasa.

I (Reuben Grant) ask that all deeds be made null and void and then the lands sold to satisfy debts of $347, interest on alimony and (other expenses, court costs, etc.)

George St. John gave a mortgage. (Do no understand this part)

The petition was granted and the lands sold. (There was a newspaper clipping advertising this sale)

Mrs. Helen Hunt Read

Toledo, Ohio 43623

Dear Mrs. Read:

I was glad to hear from you again, but unfortunately I must report that a search of our grantor and grantee indices from 1802 through 1884 for both deeds and miscellaneous records showed no entries for OLIVER SHORT. For the period you cited, 1825-1845, the only entries for the surname of SHORT were under the given name of William, Seneca M., and Horatio N. You will find the check which you forwarded attached to this letter. Best of luck in your continued research efforts.

Respectfully,

Don M. Read

Retired Toledo Attorney Was An Avid Sportsman

Norman Cohen, 74, a retired Toledo attorney who once owned a Cleveland Indians minor league baseball franchise, died Friday in Darlington House, where he lived the last week.

Mr. Cohen, formerly of Pembroke Road, began his law practice in 1928 after receiving his law degree from Ohio Northern University.

At about the same time, he purchased the franchise for the former Mansfield baseball team in the Class D Ohio State League. He also was president of the baseball league one year.

The Mansfield team was not profitable, however, and Mr. Cohen sold his interest after two years. He often told of how he sold his own auto for $150 to help meet the final payroll.

An avid golfer, Mr. Cohen joined with others in the purchase of the former Sunningdale Country Club (now Tamaron) at a foreclosure sale in 1959. He served as general manager until it was sold about 10 years ago.

At the time of his retirement nine years ago, Mr. Cohen was in the law firm of Cohen, Jordan, Sharfman, and Cohen, in which a son, Richard A. Cohen, also was a partner. He also owned several commercial properties.

He moved to Altamonte Springs, Fla., after retiring and returned to Toledo recently.

His friendship with the late Clive Rush, football coach at the University of Toledo in the late 1950s, led to the establishment the Norman Cohen trophy to recognize the oustanding freshman player at UT.

TYPES OF RECORDS THAT CAN BE ORDERED WITH THIS FORM

PENSION APPLICATION FILES based on United States (not State) service before World War I. Pension files usually include an official statement of the veteran's military service, as well as information of a personal nature. Pensions based on military service for the Confederate States of America were authorized by some Southern States but not by the Federal Government until 1959. Inquiries about State pensions should be addressed to the State archives or equivalent agency at the capital of the veteran's State of residence after the war.

BOUNTY-LAND WARRANT APPLICATION FILES based on United States (not State) service before 1856. Documents in a bounty-land warrant application file are similar to those in a pension application file. In addition, these files usually give the veteran's age and place of residence at the time the application was made.

MILITARY SERVICE RECORDS based on service in the United States Army (officers who served before June 30, 1917; enlisted men who served before October 31, 1912); Navy (officers who served before 1903; enlisted men who served before 1886); Marine Corps (officers and enlisted men who served before 1896); and Confederate armed forces (officers and enlisted men, 1861-65). In addition to persons who served in regular forces raised by the Federal Government, volunteers fought in various wars chiefly in the Federal Government's interest from the Revolutionary War through the Phillipine Insurrection, 1775-1902. Compilations of information concerning most military service performed by individuals in volunteer organizations during the nineteenth and early twentieth century are available, but such records were not compiled for Regular Army officers who served before 1863 and for Regular Army enlisted men and Navy and Marine Corps personnel who served during most of the nineteenth century. Records pertaining to such service are scattered among many files and vary in content, but we can furnish information on the military careers of individuals who served in these organizations. Because of Department of Defense restrictions on personnel records, we cannot provide photocopies of files pertaining to military service that ended less than 75 years ago; however, we are usually able to provide certain unrestricted information from these files. Military service records rarely contain family information.

The record of an individual's service in any one organization is entirely separate from his record of service in another organization. We are ordinarily unable to accurately establish the identity of individuals of the same name who served in different organizations. If you know that an individual served in more than one organization and you desire copies of all of the military service records, submit a separate form for the service record in each organization.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

When you send more than one form at a time, each form may be handled separately and you may not receive all of your replies at the same time.

When because of the size of a pension or bounty-land warrant application file, we are unable to provide copies of all documents, we send copies of the documents we think will be most useful to you. You may order copies of all documents in a file by making a specific request. We will notify you of the cost of the copies. We will also advise you of the cost of reproducing any military service records that cannot be furnished for the $5.00 fee. Prepayment is required.

Often there are many files for veterans of the same or nearly the same name. If there are five or fewer files for men with the same name as the individual in whom you are interested, we will examine all the relevant files and compare their contents with the information that you have provided us. If the veteran's identity seems obvious, we will furnish you a copy of the file we think is the correct one.

If there are more than five files, we will not make a file-by-file check to see if the information in the numerous files matches that provided for the veteran in whom you are interested. In such cases, we suggest that you visit the National Archives and examine the various files, or hire a professional researcher to examine the files for you. We do not maintain a list of persons who do research for a fee; however many researchers advertise their services in genealogical periodicals, usually available in libraries.

More information about the availability of records pertaining to military service may be found in our free genealogical information leaflets and forms. These may be requested by writing to:

Dear Helen Read,

Recently I saw your query in the TriState Trader magazine or newspaper. According to the LDS Mormon Temple Group Sheet submitted by Robert Swander of Ten Sleep, Wyoming, Oliver Short and Clarissa Ruth Grummon were the parents of my great-great grandmother, Sarah Ann Short.

Enclosing linage chart and some documents pertaining to Sarah Ann Short Golden. Have very little Short/Grummon information but quite a bit on the Short/Golden families.

While in Salt Lake City last month, I researched a little on this line but wasn't too sucessful. It bothered me that her chart there showed her born in 1838 instead of 1830 but finally decided it was a type error. Do you have a list of the children of Oliver Short with date of birth, etc? Have been unable to contact Mr. Swander over the years so finally gave up; in fact, you are the first one that I have ever seen queried about the Grummon line.

In Otsego Co NY census is Samuel and Amasa Short and John and Nathaniel Grummon 1800

In 1820 same place is Uriah, Samuel, Asa, and Arnold Short

Then in 1830 is Oliver Short, Otsego Co, Milford, NY and then I can not find him there in 1840 but didn't have time to check OHIO. I am going to Ohio in June so thought I might check further then. I found in the same county, Otsego, is a Daniel Golden, now I am wondering if he is related to my George G. Golden and maybe Isaiah Golden was visiting him and met Sarah Ann in New York. Really haven't spent much time on these lines but you havespurred me on to action!! Spotted a marriage record of Nathaniel Grummon & Lydia Wentworth in Otsego Co NY in 30 Dec 1807.

Would be glad to exchange any information I have, it is always more interesting and fun if there is someone else working on your lines too. Hoping to hear from you,

Sincerely,

Elizabeth

Townsend. Mr. Sanford has held several offices, such as treasurer, trustee, etc.

G. W. Sanford, son of Zachariah and Mary Sanford, was born in Townsend township, February 2, 1840. He lived at home until he began work for himself. In 1863 he married Miss Adaline Hawkins, daughter of Hiram Hawkins, of Townsend. He has been residing on his present farm since 1868. Politically Mr. Sanford is a Republican.

James Lewis removed from Ontario county, New York, in 1833, and settled in the northeast corner of Townsend. He retired from the farm some time since and is now living at Clyde.

Benjamin Hooper, another of the settlers of 1833, was born in Devonshire, England, in 1787. He emigrated to America in 1833 and settled in Townsend the same year. His family consisted of four daughters and one son.

Edward Chambers, a native of Ireland, removed from Boston, Massachusetts, and settled in Townsend township on the farm now occupied by Andrew Smith, in 1845. He married Mary Hooper, who is still living at Clyde. Three of their children are living—F. R. Chambers in Townsend, A. B. Chambers, Hannibal, Missouri, and Mary A. Chambers, Clyde. Edward Chambers died in March, 1879. F. R. Chambers was born in Townsend township in 1847. He married, November 1, 1880, Annie Mahr, daughter of G. P. and Anna M. Mahr, of this township.

Isaiah Golden was born in Pike county, Pennsylvania, in 1819. In 1823 his father removed to Wayne county, Ohio, and thence to Huron county. Mr. Golden, in 1840, came to this county and settled in Townsend township. He married for his first wife, Lucy H. Gifford. For his second wife he married Sarah Ann Short. The fruit of this marriage is four children living—Seth, Townsend township; Polly Ann (Burr), Putnam county; Ora and Eva, Townsend. Names of children deceased Franklin, Delilah, Jeremiah and Edward.

Z. P. Brush was born at Danbury, Connecticut, in 1816. His father's family soon after removed to New York, whence Z. P. emigrated to Erie county, Ohio, in 1836, and in 1841 married Almira Tibbals. He removed to Townsend the next spring, and settled on the farm on which Abraham Townsend had made the first improvement in the township. After Townsend removed, this farm was owned by Zeno Tibbals, the father-in-law of Mr. Brush. The Brush family consists of five children living—Z. T., commercial traveller; Joseph B., Townsend; Mildred (Nichols), Kansas; James Z. and Allie, Townsend.

The White family settled in Townsend township about 1843. Lytle White was a native of the State of New York. He married, in Townsend, Mrs. Ann Kittle, née Winters, who still survives him. To them was born Benjamin L., who now resides in this township. By her former marriage Mrs. White had one child, Mary, deceased. Mrs. White was born in Canada in 1799.

Charles W. White was born in Prussia, in 1840. In 1848 he came to Sandusky county with his father, and in 1865 married Catharine Wahl. Three children are living—Charles F., William R., and Ella. Mr. White was elected to the office of infirmary director in 1878, and has also served his township as trustee.

Joseph Miller, a native of Pennsylvania, came to Ohio in 1830, and settled in Townsend township. In 1864 he married Caroline Wadsworth. Four children of this union are living—J. Henry, Anna, Addie, and Bertie. Joseph Miller died in March, 1881, aged sixty-eight years.

Genesee Co: Mich

GRAND BLANC.

GRAND BLANC, the oldest township organization in Gene e County, is situated upon the south border, and is desig ted by the United States survey as township No. 6 north, nge No. 7 east.

Its boundaries on the north, east, and west are the re ective townships of Burton, Atlas, and Mundy, in Gene e County, and Oakland County on the south.

The surface is a rolling upland. Originally, the northern rt was covered with dense forests of the deciduous trees common to Michigan, while the central and southern rts of the township afforded a fair representation of the nds called hazel-brush openings.

Thread River, its principal water-course, takes its rise in akland County, and flowing to the northwest, leaves the wn near the centre of the north border. This stream in s course affords good water-power privileges, which are ot utilized, and, with its numerous small tributaries, renders asible the complete system of ditching and drainage now eing adopted where swampy lands exist.

Grand Blanc Lake includes a small portion of section 1; Slack's Lake, of sections 34 and 35. A small lake f some 20 acres in extent, called Smith Lake, is situated pon section 22. Numerous springs are found in various arts of the township, some of them quite strongly impreg ated with magnesia.

The soil is of an excellent quality, and consists of a dark, andy, and gravelly loam, alternating with clay loam and lluvial deposits of a vegetable character.

Peat beds are found in some portions of the township, lso brick and potter's clay of a good quality. Iron ore, n small quantities, exists in the northwest and central arts.

The people are agriculturists chiefly, the staple pro ucts being live stock, wool, pork, corn, fruits, and the arious cereals. In the cultivation of winter wheat they re especially successful.

The population in 1874 was 1389.

LAND-ENTRIES.

The first entry for land in township 6 north, range 7 ast, was made by William Thompson and Charles Little, of Livingston Co., N. Y., and Samuel B. Perkins, from Ontario Co., N. Y.; all of whom made purchases at the same date, viz.: June 17, 1824.

Thompson's purchase embraced the northeast quarter and east half of the southeast quarter of section 9, and the southwest quarter of section 10, in all a tract of 500 acres, Little's the southeast quarter of section 15; while Perkins chose the west half of the northwest quarter of the same section. All of section 15 was taken up prior to July 4, 1829. Edmund and Rowland B. twenty-five days upon the road. Upon their arrival here they were received under the hospitable roof of Jacob Stevens, where they remained some four weeks, or until a house of their own could be erected. The Fourth of July, 1826, was celebrated by all the white inhabitants of Genesee County sitting down to a banquet spread under a cherry-tree which stood in Jacob Stevens' yard. Those assembled were entirely of the Stevens and Perry families.

In the fall of 1826 Edmund Perry returned to New York, and brought out with him the rest of his family, viz., his wife Mercy, and children Clarinda, Edmund, Jr., Seymour, Irene, Esther, and Manson. Edmund Perry, Sr., died Jan. 13, 1864, aged eighty-five years. He was a native of Rhode Island, and an educated Quaker. His great energy and force of character, united with his love for pioneer life, induced him to battle with the wilderness, clear a number of farms, then leave them to plunge again into the forests when neighbors became too plenty. He was a respected member of society, an excellent citizen, a kind friend, and believed in doing good without ostentation. His surviving sons were Simeon, Edmund, Seymour, and Manson. Isabella, a daughter of Simeon, was the first white child born in the county. Mary Perry, a daughter of Edmund, now the wife of Addison Armstrong, Esq., was born soon after.

Edward H. Spencer, from Windsor, Vt., purchased lands situated upon section 9, May 25, 1827, and became the next settler, during the same spring.

In the spring of 1828 William Roberts came into the settlement, also George E. Perry, from Connecticut, Judge Jeremiah Riggs, with his sons Augustus C., Frederick T., and others of a large family. They located where Phineas Thompson now resides, and purchased from the government a large tract of land. Augustus C. Riggs was the first constable and collector in the township, and for several years township clerk. It is related that at the time of his marriage a general invitation was extended to the citizens of Grand Blanc and its vicinity to attend the "infair."

At this gathering Sam Russell and his fiddle were particularly conspicuous, and during the festivities of the evening, while the merry party assembled were in the midst of a dance, the sleepers gave way, and the floor caved in, funnel-fashion, precipitating to the cellar beneath with their fair partners, Phineas and Caleb Thompson, Rowland B. and Simeon Perry, Jeremiah R. Smith, Jonathan Dayton, Joseph McFarlen, John Todd, and others. No bones were broken, but the party was, and the dance was terminated. Joseph McFarlen, who married Eveline, a daughter of Edmund Perry, Sr., in 1824, came from Rush, Monroe Co., N. Y., and settled in Grand Blanc during the month of May, 1828. He purchased a fine tract of land from the government, which he cleared, and where he resides at the present time. Mr. M. is eighty years of age; his wife seventy-seven. Jeremiah Ketchum came at about the same time. He boarded with Jacob Stevens, purchased land upon section 10, and died soon after, his being the first death in the township.

On the 9th day of June, 1829, Caleb S. Thompson, Jonathan Dayton, Caleb Embury, and Ezekiel R. Ewing Windham, Vt. He purchased land situated upon section 9, then returned to the East, and did not become a permanent settler until two years later.

Messrs. Embury, Thompson, and Dayton were from Livingston Co., N. Y. They also bought lands of the government, and settled the same year (1829).

Mr. Thompson, who is still a resident of the township, was married to Clarinda Perry, daughter of Edmund Perry, Sr., in 1830. He relates that at the time of his arrival here there were about forty-five persons in Grand Blanc, all of whom, with one or two exceptions, were from Avon, Livingston Co., N. Y. Edward H. Spencer had a rough log house, and about one acre cleared and planted to corn, potatoes, etc. The Stevenses had some forty acres under cultivation, and there were some fifty or sixty acres in cultivation in the Perry settlement. Judge Riggs and his sons had also made a good beginning. Thirteen lots lying along the Saginaw road, and seven lots on Perry Street, had already been purchased, and ten more eighty-acre lots were entered during the remaining part of the year 1829. The Saginaw road was laid out and staked so that it was easy to find it, but no work had been done upon it. The traveled highway, which followed the Indian trail, went rambling around through the woods, avoiding hills and swamps, and was quite a comfortable wagon-road. The streams and low places had been bridged some time previous by the United States soldiers stationed in garrison at Saginaw.

In the fall of 1829 Mr. Thompson returned to New York, and taught school the following winter. Feb. 22, 1830, he again began a journey to Michigan. He drove out an ox-team, and was twenty-five days on the road. His father, Washington Thompson, and brother Phineas, from Monroe Co., N. Y., became settlers in Grand Blanc the same year (1830).

Judge Jeremiah R. Smith, long a prominent man in the township, Silas Smith, R. T. Winchell, Clark Dibble, Thomas Cartwright, the first hatter, George Dibble, Jonathan Davison, and Pearson Farrar all settled prior to the winter of 1830–31.

In 1832 the settlement was still further increased by the arrival of John Tupper and sons,—Alden, Charles, Benjamin, Reuben, Newell, and Harrison, from Rush, Monroe Co., N. Y.; Uriah Short and sons, from Otsego Co., N. Y.; Alvah Bishop, Montgomery Co., N. Y.; Charles, John, and Moses P. Butler, from Genesee Co., N. Y.; Albert Miller, afterwards prominent as Judge Miller, of Bay City, Mich.; John P. Fritz, from Rush, Monroe Co., N. Y.; Amasa Short, a brother of Uriah, and soldier of 1812; Alfred and Alvah Brainard, from Monroe Co., N. Y. Mr. Alfred Brainard was prominent as one of the founders of the Baptist Church, and a respected citizen. Alvah Brainard, who died in April, 1879, claims to have erected the first frame dwelling-house in Grand Blanc without whisky, in March, 1833, and the first brick dwelling-house in Genesee County, July 4, 1850. During the last years of his life he prepared for publication a small pamphlet, entitled "A Pioneer History of Grand Blanc," wherein several amusing incidents are told in an amusing manner.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETIES.

Previous to the organization of any religious society in this township, the early settlers had been visited at irregular intervals by Elders Benedict and Gambell, Baptist preachers, and Rev. I. W. Ruggles, a Presbyterian minister from Pontiac. Meetings were held in the small log school-house in the Perry settlement, and frequently in the dwelling-houses of the inhabitants.

after. It is related that William and Jeremy Chambers walked the entire distance from Jefferson Co., N. Y., to their place of settlement in Michigan.

John Hiller, from Ogden, Monroe Co., N. Y., purchased 320 acres upon sections 23 and 26 in June, 1836, and settled upon his purchase in September following. His present residence was the first framed house erected in the eastern part of the township; it was built in 1843, and his barn, the second framed one, in 1842.

Among others who settled in 1836 and early in 1837 were William Tilton, Thomas Bownes, William Bendle, Benjamin Boomer, Horace Boomer, Clark Boomer, Cephas Carpenter, Tunis Cole, Adoniram Dan, Daniel Estes, Col. T. Gorton, John L. Gage, Ovid Hemphill, Harris Hibbard, Charles Johnson, John McCormick, Samuel McCormick, Benjamin F. Olmsted, Walter Rall, William Rall, Thomas Sweet, Ephraim Walker, and Jesse Whitcomb.

The following-named settlers purchased lands of the general government, and located in the township at an early day: Jacob Eldridge, Edward Eidridge, from Livingston Co., N. Y.; John Clifford, from Genesee Co., N. Y.; Levi Walker, from Cayuga Co., N. Y.; Benjamin Pearson, Samuel S. Todd, Zenas Goulding, Charles P. Day, Nathaniel B. Overton, Jesse Chapman, and Joel Bardwell, Jr., from Oakland Co., Mich.; Jonathan Harrington and Albert G. Gage, from Ontario Co., N. Y.; Daniel Hiller, Ira Donelson, Timothy B. Tucker, Peter Stiles, Samuel C. Stiles, and Abel S. Donelson, from Monroe Co., N. Y.; George Beckwith, Oneida Co., N. Y.; ✓ Warren Annable, Oliver Short, and a large family of sons, from Otsego Co., N. Y.; Nathan Lamson and Mark M. Jerome, from Jefferson Co., N. Y.; and Andrew Cox, from Montgomery Co., N. Y.

A majority of the early settlers of Burton, or, as it was then known, Flint township, came from the towns of Adams and Henderson, Jefferson Co., N. Y., and their location was known for many years as the "Atherton settlement."

Here they cleared up the forests, built themselves houses, established a school and a church, and laid the foundation of a thriving Christian community. Of those who came among them and settled here during the fourth decade of the present century, none became better known in the county and State, and in later years in many of the Eastern, Middle, and Western States, than Rev. Orson Parker, the evangelist.

Mr. Parker was the grandson of a veteran of the Revolutionary war, and was born near where the city of Lawrence, Mass., now stands, in 1800. In 1814 he went to Jefferson Co., N. Y., where his father had removed with his family in 1811. They settled in the town of Henderson, not far from Henderson Harbor, Lake Ontario. In 1821 he began the study of law with the late Judge Thomas C. Chittenden. "He eventually became the law partner of Mr. Chittenden, and continued to practice with marked success until an event occurred which completely changed the whole course of his life, and led to results in after-years which far exceeded in their importance the most brilliant successes which he could possibly hope to gain in the profession of law."*

He was married in 1827 to Miss Celestine Gridley. One boy was born to them, who lived but three months. A year and a half after their marriage the young wife died. He then began a careful study of the Bible. The effect produced upon his mind by the loss of his wife and child, and his strong desire to fulfill his promise to her to meet her in heaven, made his heart peculiarly susceptible to religious influences, and during a revival in Adams, under the ministrations of Rev. Jedediah Burchard, he became converted. He then gave up the practice of law, and entered the Auburn (N. Y.) Theological Seminary. After a year's study he returned to Adams, was examined and licensed to preach by the Black River Association. In 1832 he married Diana Eleanor, a daughter of Adonijah Atherton, of Henderson, N. Y. The same year he was called by the Presbyterian Church of Belleville, N. Y., where he continued one year. He was then employed by the Black River Association to hold protracted meetings in the churches within their limits. He was called to Cassville, N. Y., in 1834, remaining two years. From there he went to Ohio, held revival meetings all through the Western Reserve, and for a few months supplied the pulpit in Painesville.

In August, 1837, he came from Ohio with his family, consisting of his wife and three young children. With a single horse and buggy, he brought his family from Detroit—to which place they had come from Sandusky—to his father-in-law's house, in the wilds of Northern Michigan. At that time, the country north of Detroit was sparsely settled; only here and there was a little clearing in the forest, where some sturdy pioneer had begun to hew out a home for himself and family. There was no public conveyance. The road was a mere trail through the woods, almost impassable except in the driest part of the season. Leaving his family at the home of Mr. Atherton, he began a mission, which ended only with his life, March 14, 1876. His first work in the State was in the village of Flint, then a place of a dozen or twenty houses. The first communion was administered by Mr. Parker, in the fall of 1837, the congregation meeting in the unfinished loft of a store. At an early period he purchased the fine farm in Burton at present occupied by his widow. This place, and Flint, with the exception of a few years spent elsewhere, have been the residence of the family since 1844. Mr. Parker labored incessantly in promoting revivals. His seasons of work were usually from about the first of September till the last of April or May. His field extended from Massachusetts to Iowa, from Canada to Maryland. He died at Havana, N. Y., of paralysis, while in the midst of his labors. He died, as he wished to die, with the harness on. During the last months of his life he wrote a work, entitled "The Fire and the Hammer, or Revivals, and how to Promote them," which was published soon after his death.

The first years were trying ones to the people in the Atherton settlement. The removal from New York to Michigan and the purchase of their lands had, in most instances, exhausted their all. For a year or two many of them worked for the Atherton brothers, Capt. Curtis, and Pliny A. Skinner, who, at this time, were considered forehanded. Soon their resources were gone, eaten up; poor crops followed an unfavorable season, and all were poor in common. Destitution and privations existed upon all sides; women nurtured amid the comforts and luxuries of their Eastern homes wept and prayed alternately, as their vision took in the waste of forests and the few acres of cleared, yet stumpy land, which environed their rude cabins.

But the bond of common suffering more firmly knit the ties of friendship and neighborly affection. With strong arms and undaunted hearts, the men whose names are mentioned in this chapter finally wrought from the frowning wilderness a competence, and many of them are to-day, with their children, enjoying the fruits of an honorable, industrious life in one of the most fertile regions of the State of Michigan.

CIVIL HISTORY.

Burton township, originally a part of Grand Blanc, became a portion of Flint in 1836.

In 1839, sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, and 17, by an act of the State Legislature, became the south part of the now obsolete township of Kearsley. By the same authority, these sections were reannexed to Flint, March 7, 1843.

The Board of Supervisors of Genesee County, by preamble and resolutions, of date Oct. 12, 1855, resolved as follows:

> "Whereas, Application has been made, according to law, to divide the township of Flint into two townships; and whereas, the township of Flint includes two surveyed townships, except that part included in the city of Flint.
> "Therefore, resolved, by the Board of Supervisors of the county of Genesee:
> "SECTION 1. That all that part of the township of Flint included in township No. 7 north, of range No. 7 east, be, and the same is hereby, set off and organized into a separate township by the name of Burton; and the first township meeting for the election of officers shall be held on the first Monday of April, 1856, at the Atherton school-house in said township; and that Harlow Whittlesey, Henry D. Frost, and Nelson Norton, be, and they are hereby, appointed to preside at such meeting, appoint a clerk, open and keep the polls, and exercise the same powers as inspectors of elections at any township meeting; and that Harlow Whittlesey be, and he is hereby, appointed to post up notices, according to law, of the time and place of such meeting, in the newly organized township of Burton."

By sections 2 and 3 of the same resolution, township No. 7 north, of range 6 east (Flint), was organized into a separate township by the name of Garland. These sections were amended at a session of the board of supervisors, held Feb. 5, 1856, and the name of Flint substituted in the place of Garland.

Interesting Letter From New Hampshire Subscriber

Oct, 27 — 1938

The following interesting letter was received late last Thursday from Mrs. Opal Sherk, of Portsmouth, N. H., which we are pleased to share with our readers, many of whom are acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Sherk, who formerly lived in Elmore and recently concluded an extended visit here.

"Our trip home was so very interesting that I thought perhaps you'd be interested in a short account of it.

We fully enjoyed our four-day stay with friends in Washington D. C., and left for Portsmouth on Thursday. Our trip took us through Maryland and across the Deleware River by ferry into Deleware; from there into New Jersey and through the Holland Tunnel into New York City, where we viewed the sky line of New York by night—and also saw the ocean liner "Bremen" in dock there. From New York, into Connecticut and Rhode Island, where damage from the recent storm was heavy. It's hard to realize the extent of the storm until actually seen. We passed through New London, Conn., where wind, fire and flood destroyed part of the city; and through Providence, R. I., where damage was heavy. Whole pine forests were laid flat and many estates lost every tree. From Providence we sidetracked from our schedule in order to visit Plymouth, Mass., where we saw many interesting things including Plymouth Rock, where that historic landing was made. Then on to Boston and into New Hampshire, which we now call home.

There was not much damage done in Portsmouth nor at the New Hampshire beaches. The storm swept inland and did its worst damage through the center of the state, including the White Mountain District, where forests were leveled.

We are having beautiful weather here, news reports stating that there were only eleven days the past summer that were hotter than yesterday, October 17."

Interesting Letter From New Hampshire Subscriber

The following interesting letter was received last week Tuesday from Mrs. Cora Story, of Portsmouth, N.H., which we are pleased to share with our readers, many of whom are acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Story, who formerly lived in Colony and recently vacationed as extended visitors here.

"Our trip home was so very interesting that I thought perhaps you would be interested in a short account of it.

We fully enjoyed our ten-day stay with friends in Washington, D.C., and left for Portsmouth on Thursday. Our trip took us through Maryland and across the Delaware River by ferry into Delaware, then into New Jersey and through the Holland Tunnel into New York City, where we viewed the sky line of New York by night—and also saw the famous "Bowery" in that town. From New York into Connecticut and Rhode Island, where damage from the recent storm was heavy. It's hard to realize the extent of the storm until actually seen. We passed through New London, Conn., where wind, fire and flood destroyed part of the city; and through Providence, R.I., where damage was heavy. Whole forests were laid flat and many estates lost every tree. From Providence we sidetracked from our schedule in order to visit Plymouth, Mass., where we saw many interesting things including Plymouth Rock, where that historic landing was made. Then on to Boston and into New Hampshire, which we now call home.

"There was not much damage here in Portsmouth but it hit New Hampshire forests. The storm swung inland and did its worst damage through the center of the state, including the White Mountain District, where forests were leveled.

We are having beautiful weather here, newspapers stating that there were only eleven days all past summer that were warmer than yesterday, October 17."
